Dr Wehan M. Coombs

English Home Language teacher, FET Phase

Profile

English teacher with a background in literature and philosophy and 15 years of university teaching experience. Taught Grade 10 and 11 English Home Language at Abbotts College and English First Additional Language at Hoërskool Garsfontein during PGCE practicums in 2026. Builds lessons on respectful, trusting relationships and lively discussion, treating learners as real thinking partners.

School teaching

Abbotts College Pretoria East

Jul – Sep 2026

PGCE teaching practicum

- Planned and taught Grade 10 and 11 English Home Language over seven weeks, including Macbeth and The Tempest, taking charge of classes with guidance from a mentor teacher
- Used regular informal assessments to check what learners had understood
- Mentor assessment: 95/100, with full marks for classroom competencies; 98/100 for a lesson observed by my university mentor
- Community engagement: tended the community garden, played a key role in organising a Book Day (a take-one-leave-one book donation drive) and helped with a shoe donation outreach

Hoërskool Garsfontein

May 2026

PGCE teaching practicum

- Planned and taught Grade 10 and 11 English First Additional Language grammar and poetry over three weeks
- Community engagement: helped with the school's Kersfees in die Winter charity drive

Teaching approach

> Learners do their best thinking when they feel known and respected. I start from what they already know, then set a challenge they reason through together in discussion, and end by applying the new skill to their own lives, so they leave with ideas they can call their own.

Extramurals

- Squash: League player at Irene Squash Club; keen to help coach or run a school team.
- Debating and public speaking: Can coach debaters and adjudicate.
- General duties: Glad to help with sport (I know the rules of most major codes, from cricket and rugby to soccer and tennis), events and supervision wherever needed.
- Student society: Long-time member of Footnotes, the UP philosophy society (2010–2025), helping to organise talks and film screenings.

Professional development

- 120-hour TESOL/TEFL certificate, World TESOL Academy (2026), covering grammar, lesson planning and classroom management
- Attended Teaching and Learning Week sessions at the University of Pretoria on AI in schools and on indigenous language literacy (2026)
- Presented 13 research papers at philosophy conferences, colloquia and workshops since 2012 (see the full resume for details)
